DETAILED ACTION

1. In view of amendment filed June 5, 2006, claims 5-9, 11 have been cancelled. Claims 1, 10, 12-17 are pending. Claims 12-17 are drawn to non-elected subject matter. Claims 1, 10 are examined with merit.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
 2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
 3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
 4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
3. Claims 1, 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kerkar et al. (US patent 5,604,273) in view of Ohta et al. (US Patent 5,660,626), further in view of Berke et al. (US Patent 5,571,319), and yet, still further in view of Kloetzer et al. (US Patent 4,927,463) for the reasons adequately set forth from paragraph 5 of the office action of March 15, 2006.

Applicant's arguments filed June 5, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicants argue that claims 1, 10 should be allowable since the component B of claim 1 has been amended to recite "polyalkyleneglycol monoalkyl ether with polyoxypropylene group having only 2-4 oxypropylene units". However, the examiner disagrees because the teachings of Berke et al. (col. 3, line 57 to col. 4, line 4) clearly include the "polyalkyleneglycol monoalkyl ether with polyoxypropylene group having only 2-4 oxypropylene units" as claimed. Motivated by the expectation of success of producing a cement admixture to provide enhance compressive strength and impart corrosion resistance to the resultant concrete structure (col. 1, line 5-10), it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in art to alkylene oxide teachings of Berke et al. into the Kerkar et al. to obtain the invention of claims 1, 10.

Priority

4. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority based on an application filed in Japan on March 3, 2003. It is noted, however, that applicant has not filed a certified copy of the 2003-55175 application as required by 35 U.S.C. 119(b).

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
